Bless the Beast and the children

Mr & Mrs
Bojo Jones
by Ann Head

I came from a culture that said, "If you don't pick potatoes you won't get new clothes
for school."

Letting go of the books -
all the magic.
Who taught me? how to Teach

If I have seen
further others it is because I stand on the shoulders
of Giants.

COMPOSITION BOOK

- I started taking notes
- Independent reading is not what we do with left over time. it is where we start, it where everything starts.

Readers who do not like to read, give them a book and have them read for a short time, make a comment

PASS the Book and do it again. at the end ask, was there a book you would read?

Is there a book that would get me fired?

By the end every child had a book to READ

TIME

They need more time
more volume
more diversity

CHOICE

what next? I don't know, you tell me just wander around and make a choice
